Hello from DEDEM

The word “Dedem” doesn’t just refer to a family elder; it also stands for our first master of flavor, our first teacher of ethics, and our first role model in honest trade.

When I founded this brand, it wasn’t just about profit—it was about passing on a culture.

I witnessed how the value of döner evolved over time... But I always believed: This flavor tells a story.

With the Dedem brand, we keep that story alive:

- We preserve traditional recipes
- We ensure 100% safety with modern hygiene standards
- We bring the craftsmanship of Turkish cuisine to America

We offer a story

We offer memories

We offer quality, trust, and flavor

– Ridvan SAYGILI
Founder

DEDEM IS MORE THAN JUST A NAME

“Dedem” means “my grandfather” in Turkish.

But for us, it means much more:
The scent of childhood mornings, the first pinch of spice,
the most flavorful slice of our very first döner...

This brand is a symbol of dedication and discipline.
In every product, you’ll find the craftsmanship of the past and the safety of today.

What Do We Promise?

Flavor: Pure tradition, no additives,
masterfully made.

Trust: Certified quality with HACCP, Halal, and USDA standards.

Collaboration: Win-win partnerships with restaurants, chefs, and distributors.

Simplicity: Clear, efficient, and supported every step of the way.

FROM TÜRKİYE TO AMERICA

A 50-YEAR JOURNEY OF BUTCHERY AND DÖNER

The 50-year journey that began in the 1970s with a humble butcher shop in Türkiye continued across the ocean—at a döner stand in America. Over time, döner began to emerge as one of the most beloved street foods in the U.S.

Today, döner can be found in cities all around the world—but not every döner is authentic.

Dedem stays true to the original Turkish döner recipe: free from additives, carefully marinated, and masterfully prepared.

This flavor is a symbol of migration, labor, and cultural exchange. And we carry this legacy into the future with modern production.

THE FLAVOR FORMULA: SOURCING + SPICE + TIME

Each bite of Dedem döner reflects a formula perfected with care and precision:

Meat Sourcing:

Only premium cuts of beef, lamb, and chicken thigh are used.

Feeding & Age:

The taste of the meat depends on the living conditions of the animal.

Marination:

Spices blended in special proportions and marinated for 24 hours.

Spice Identity:

Recipes refined over the years.
